elcome to Miss NY Chinese Beauty Pageant 2003. We are dedicated to share our excitement with you tonight. By the time we put the crown on Miss NY Chinese Beauty Pageant 2003, I am sure that you will agree with me that the competition has gone a few notch higher.

This is our second year in organizing the Pageant, which becomes an annual competition that attracts the highest public attention among the Chinese communities in New York. This year we reach another historical high among local press and other media in the coverage of the event. We have redefined the public view of the competition. It truly exemplifies our goals, in attracting global attention, in positioning ourselves as a professional organization and in providing opportunities for the contestants to achieve their career and personal goals.

The titleholders of the Miss NY Chinese Beauty Pageants Inc. personify the combination of beauty, intelligence and qualities that define a new generation of Chinese women living overseas. The Miss NY Chinese Beauty Pageant 2003 is held in conjunction with the Miss Chinese International, and the winner of this Pageant will soon be leaving for Hong Kong seeking further success in the Miss Chinese International 2004 competition to be hosted by HK TVB. We wish the best of luck for our winner to shine in Hong Kong.

We will continue to focus ourselves in setting newer and higher standards for the future and generating more benefits to the contestants and other participants of the Miss NY Chinese Beauty Pageant, without whom this event will not be such a success.

同時,選美會將會努力不懈地煥發新創意、新風格,使每年一度的紐約華裔小姐選美活動邁進更新, 更高的製作水平。在此,選美會多謝各贊助商兩年來熱情參予,給予我們慷慨的支持。並歡迎更多贊助商踴躍加入,共襄來年選美盛事,給華埠以致整個華人領域的經濟繁榮和文化風姿畫出一道亮麗的 彩虹。有你們的支持和參予,讓我們一起預祝明年選美活動更大的成功。

STATE OF NEW YORK

GEORGE E. PATAKI GOVERNOR

August 3, 2003

Dear Friends:

It is a pleasure to extend greetings to all gathered for the 2003 Miss New York Chinese Beauty Pageant.

Tonight's pageant will not only choose a representative for New York City in the Miss Chinese International Pageant 2004 in Hong Kong, but will also nominate an ambassador of goodwill who will act as a conduit of exchange between our respective cultures. As such, the Empire State is proud to recognize organizations and individuals that continually contribute to New York's status as one of the world's greatest metropolitan areas. I am sure that all participants here tonight will do well in representing our great State to the world community.

On behalf of all New Yorkers, I would like to extend best wishes to all for an enjoyable evening and the best of luck to all of the contestants here tonight.

Very truly yours,

My E. Patal

July 24, 2003

Dear Friends,

As Chair of the Congressional Asian Pacific American Caucus, I extend to you my most enthusiastic compliments on the occasion of the 2003 Miss New York Chinese Beauty Pageant. I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate you for holding this outstanding event.

I applaud your continued dedication to promote and embrace the hopes and aspirations of Asian Pacific Americans. This year's effort to bring young Chinese American women together to increase their cultural awareness should be commended.

Chinese Americans represent one of this country's fastest growing communities, and Miss New York Chinese Beauty Pageant and the Hong Kong Television Broadcasting Station have done much to increase the public visibility of Chinese Americans. The Miss New York Chinese Beauty Pageant has served the Chinese American community well by spreading knowledge, culture, and opportunity.

My best wishes to you for an exciting and successful pageant.

With warm regards,
