Established in 2002 in New York City, The Miss Chinese Beauty Pageant is not only a platform to showcase external beauty but also a stage for courageous women who dare to challenge themselves to gain extraordinary life experiences. The Miss Chinese Beauty Pageant helps contestants build confidence, understand themselves, and gain exceptional life experiences.

The ten candidates for the 2024 Miss Chinese Beauty Pageant are all top students from prestigious universities, including UC Berkeley, Yale University, Cornell University from the Ivy League, New York University and the University of Rochester. Despite coming from these elite institutions, the contestants must still undergo two months of rigorous, comprehensive training meticulously arranged by the pageant committee before stepping onto the final stage.

Participating in a beauty pageant is akin to being an athlete on the sports field; no matter how high their academic qualifications, they must undergo continuous hard training to prepare. Each step of participating in the pageant allows the contestants to learn new things and provides them with a rare opportunity to broaden their horizons.

Highlights include founding a college debate camp in South Africa, shooting photos in the Sahara Desert, and diving in the Red Sea. I also love creating art. I often paint, play the piano, write music, and study philosophy. I have also been playing the guzheng since I was six years old and was nationally ranked at one point. My passion for art led to a curiosity about the creative industry. This is what motivated me to intern at CCTV, where I learned first-hand about production and directing. I hope to bring these experiences to the Miss Chinese Beauty Pageant. I aspire to share Chinese culture globally, increase Asian representation in the entertainment industry, and serve as a role model for young women across the world. Thank you!

志向Ambition: To become an entrepreneur

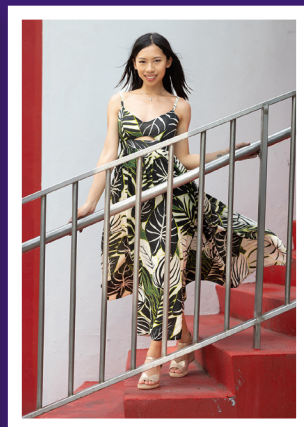

Hi Everyone! My name is Izabelle Kwan, and it's a pleasure to meet you. I was born and raised in the vibrant neighborhood of Chinatown, New York! It is an honor to represent my community as part of 'Miss Chinese'.

Recently, I became the first in my family to graduate from college, obtaining a Bachelor of Science in Applied Economics and Management from Cornell University. Education is incredibly important, and I am proud to represent first-generation college students in this competition.

In my spare time, I love showing my gratitude to my parents, who bravely immigrated from Hong Kong to the U.S., and to the communities that have moved me through community service. At

The Bronx High School of Science, I founded my own club, Crafts for Humanity, which repurposes clothing from the Lost&Found into toys for those at POTS Homeless Shelter. At the SPCA, I help socialize kittens and cats for adoption. At the New York City Alzheimer's Association, I help organize fundraisers. Finally, at Think!Chinatown, I help carry the iconic "Rainbow Dragon" lantern made from Chinese household supplies all throughout the streets of Chinatown during NYC's Chinese New Year Parade. Celebrating your roots, and always giving back are the two pillars of my being.

不可能。My ambition is to become an inspiring individual to encourage everyone to pursue what your heart wants despite your age, where you are born, how you look, and what your background is.

Hello

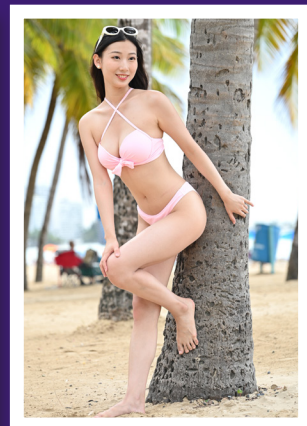

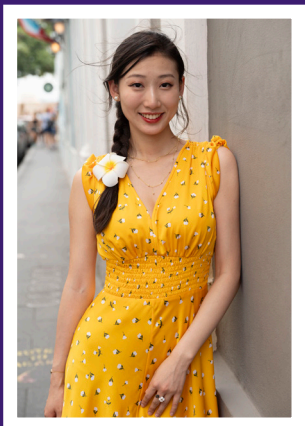

everyone! I am contestant number 6, Jessica Zhang. I was born and raised in Chengdu, China. Currently, I work in the data consulting industry. Beyond work, I love to travel, do Pilates, cooking, and spend a lot of time with my orange cat.

In day-to-day life, I am a rational, elegant, and friendly person. But just as someone who enjoys spicy food, I am also very adventurous and brave, always daring to step out of my comfort zone and never saying no to my potential.

As an art student in high school and later attended Sichuan University in China, I faced skepticism about pursuing a STEM major in grad school and launching a career as an international student in the States where English is not my first language. Despite the challenges, I worked hard and obtained my Master of Science degree. Now, I am a senior manager in a non-Asian and non-female-dominant industry.

When people suggest that I may not be the youngest or the most experienced with stage performances, I feel like I'm already winning as I embarked on my journey with pageantry. I hope to convey the message that we are beautiful when we have faith in ourselves, and it's never too late to make efforts and achieve the seemingly impossible.
