就讀學校 University of Michigan
教育程度 大學生 高度 5'3" 體重 103
胸圍 34 腰圍 24 臀圍 34.5

I have always considered myself to be a fusion between being Chinese and being American. My mother always explained to me that I am an American, having been born in New York. But I jokingly explained to her that when she boarded a US bound airplane being pregnant with me, I was able to see and be a part of China through her belly button. I feel that my Chinese heritage will always be an important and integral part of my life and for that reason, I consider myself to be Chinese- American and not American-Chinese.

Outside of school, I volunteered at the Forest Hills Nursing Home for 4 years where I was in charge of recreational activities of the senior citizens in my community. I also volunteered at AIM Academy, a Chinese-American supplementary tutoring school. There, I helped youngsters ranging from the ages of 6 to 17 in their school work and SAT preparations. I also was a co-host for a youth targeted television show on the New York Metro station where we discussed current teen issues in American society, live on air.

This past year, I have been attending the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor, Michigan. My curriculum included a range of classes: Biological Anthropology, Women Studies, Linguistics, Statistics, Mandarin Chinese, American Literature, and Psychology. I worked part-time for the America Reads Corps in Detroit, MI. This organization helps expand resources to elementary school districts over the country in hopes to decrease the rate of illiteracy in America's youth. I went to Detroit three times a week and helped young African American elementary school kids with reading difficulties overcome their learning disabilities.

In the University of Michigan, I was a part of the "GenAPA" (Generation Asian Pacific American) show. Towards the end of the academic semester, we had a performance of asian culture for the entire Michigan population. I ended the semester with a GPA of 3.925

Currently, I am interning at a law firm in New York City. My duties include, preparing court documents, serving court exhibits, writing and editing affidavits and helping clientele. In the future, I plan on becoming a corporate lawyer. I feel that as an Asian American, it is my duty to represent my background and culture in today's American society. I hope to bridge the gap between our two worlds of east and west and assimilate our cultures in becoming closer and coefficient

大家好，我是二號劉美誼。我今年二十歲，是一名主修商科的大學生。將來，我希望能夠成為一名出色的商人。這次參加選美除了是因為想作出多方面的嘗試之外，更因為我相信自己有條件和能力去代表紐約華人，從而推廣中華文化，舊求令華人社區更加繁榮和強大。

雖然我的興趣比較廣泛，但最喜歡的始終是跟音樂相關的。譬如唱歌，彈琴，聽交響樂，和作曲。在父母的栽培下，我自小就跟音樂結下不解之緣。七年的小提琴練習為我打下了良好的音樂根基。移居來美國後，我開始自學鋼琴。彈鋼琴帶來最大的歡樂就是使我能夠編作出自己音樂。作曲是我近年來最大的興趣。在創作的過程中，我能完全釋放出自己的感覺。

很榮幸我能夠順利進入總決賽，應為能夠在舞台上展現自己是一件刺激的樂事。最後，當然少不了這句常見的收場白，希望你們會支持我，多謝。

年齡 19 歲 出生地 中國 / 北京
就讀學校 Boston University
教育程度 大學生 高度 5'4" 體重 107
胸圍 34 腰圍 26 臀圍 34

Hi everyone, my name is Jenny Dong. My Chinese name is Yuan Yuan Dong and I am contestant number three. I am nineteen years old and am currently attending Boston University. For my spare time, I like to read, draw, listen to music, sing, dance, and simply have fun.

Ever since I was young, I've always loved to help the needy. In high school, I was the vice president of the UNICEF chapter in my school. I also started my own fundraising organization called A.S.I.A, which stood for Asian Support, by International Activists, which is connected to a bigger fundraising organization in Japan. The goal of the organization was to raise money for scholarships for needy children in Asia to go to school. It is still in existence today because I passed the group on to younger responsible students in my high school. I feel that it is not only important for a person to have a good appearance, but most importantly a good heart.

I joined the Miss NY Chinese Beauty Pageant because I feel that it is important for the Chinese community to receive greater recognition in the American society. By participating in the pageant, I feel good about myself because I am contributing my own efforts and strength in helping the Chinese community expand and gain respect. A common stereotype of Asians is that Asians tend to be passive. By participating in the Miss NY Chinese Pageant, I feel that I've taken part in showing the American Society, as well as the world, that Asians are not passive. This pageant is a way of sharing the Chinese culture amongst the many cultures that are out there and, in a way, unite all the cultures in America, as well as the rest of the world into one. This is why I would also love to have the opportunity, if given to me, to go to Hong Kong for the Miss International Chinese Pageant. I hope for everyone to give me their full support in becoming a representative for Chinese women, as well as a representative for the Chinese community.

My name is Winnie Fung and currently, I am 21 years old. I was born in Hong Kong and immigrated to the United States when I was eight. I have lived in New York City ever since my immigration and have been raised and educated here. I went to a small private high school in downtown Manhattan. For college, I attended Barnard College of Columbia University, where I was a literature major with concentration in East Asian Studies. Throughout my youth, I have been a semi active participant in issues pertaining to the Asian community. I have been involved with programs and organizations dealing with important social issues of the Chinese Community such as domestic violence, health, HIV/AIDS awareness, and education. In the future, I plan to further my education by getting my Masters in Marketing and Communications. My career goal is to work in Public Relations or Advertising. However, my life goal is to have a loving and caring family of my own someday.

I believe one of the best ways to understand the kind of person I am is through my interests. My interests are vast and ever expanding. My primary passion is for the arts. I enjoy creating and developing my own photos, sculpting with clay and plaster, and participating in theater. I also appreciate a wide range of music and movies. However, my biggest love lies in my family and my friends. They are my biggest supporters and at times are my strength. My inspiration comes from my mother, who has taught me that beauty and intellect comes from within. Yet, inner beauty and intelligence also comes from self-discipline and self-improvement, which is why she stresses on good education, and compassion for others. She has supported me through all my triumphs and failures, and showed the grace to become a lady. Thus, in joining this pageant, I am hoping to represent a positive and educated image of a Chinese American female.

I was born in Hong Kong and I came here when I was twelve years old. At first, I did not want to come here because I was very used to the Hong Kong lifestyle; but once I made new friends, went to school, and learned English, I learned to enjoy living in America.

For work, I began doing commercials for Sprint PCS that led to part-time commercial and modeling. From then on, I hope to become an actress because I enjoy dancing, modeling, and acting since I was eighteen, I loved playing with Barbie when I was young and hopefully in the future I can become like her because she is beautiful and have a good figure.

When I am not working, my hobbies are listening to music especially slow songs, watching romantic movies, shopping and travelling. I occasionally go back to Hong Kong to eat, shop, have fun, and especially stroll around Ocean Park. What I love the most though is my family. They have supported me throughout the whole pageant. Without them I don't think I would of made it this far. Also I appreciate the support from my friends.

Right now, I feel very happy that I had the opportunity to be in the Miss Chinese Beauty Pageant because I gained a lot of experience and learned many beauty secrets. I would like to contribute to the society, and I also want to know the world that now we live through meeting many people, I think it's very valuable for me to try new things, even if it seems very difficult. Finally, I would like saying that I will continue in gaining more knowledge, working hard in my life, and becoming an actress.

Hi, if you are currently reading this sentence, then you are beginning to read my personal profile.

My name is Angela Ng, born and raised in Hong Kong. I belong to a family of 4 that migrates to US in 1997. I am presently 19 years of age and a newly graduate from Benjamin N. Cardozo High School. As this chapter of my high school life folds, I plan to pursue a degree of Accounting and Information Systems at Queens Borough Community College.

Being here in New York for almost 6 years has given me a lot of experiences, which I know I will never obtain in Hong Kong. It is in here that I learn to be independent. I have taken numerous jobs as a cashier during summertime. With the little earnings I make, I feel fulfilled for being able to provide myself some luxury without having to ask them from my parents. During my stay here, I gained several friends. Our favorite pastime is to sing karaoke and to shop around. When I am alone, I enjoy reading fashion magazines that enhances my creativity side. I love experimenting innovative styles for my clothing and hair. This allows me to exploit my own ideas and interpretations of fashion.

Residing in a big city like New York also helps broaden my goals in life. I aspire in becoming a successful model someday. I believe joining this pageant for the search of Ms. Chinese NY can serve as a stepping-stone in making my dreams come true. Moreover, I firmly believe that the exposures I encountered from this event will certainly open some opportunities in helping me move closer to attaining my ambition. The people I met through this pageant definitely made the entire event more memorable. This is absolutely an experience that I will carry on for the rest of my life.

大家好，我是9號金曉鶯，來自上海。我今年19歲，正在 Baruch College 念商業管理系。我人生中最大的願望是不論做什麼事都能做到成功，我當然也希望能夠做一個幸福快樂的人。

我從小到大在學校都是老師心中的好學生，成績非常的優異。在家，我是父母的掌上明珠。母親從小就教育和培養我。我的興趣愛好是彈鋼琴，在11歲的時候，我已經取得鋼琴考級6級的證書。我14歲與父親來到美國，由於母親不在身旁和語言不通，生活一下子變得很辛苦。我沒有因為這些因素而放棄，我更立下決心要好好讀書，將來要出人頭地。在短短的5年裡，我已經會說流利的英語，粵語，當然還有國語和上海話。在學校，我也以優異的成績進入 Honor Society。在不久的將來，我希望能夠成為一名優秀的商業人士，為在美國的華人服務和爭光。希望大家多多支持我。

謝謝!

My name is Sherry Li. I am 22 years old and currently a senior in New Jersey Institute of Technology. I will be graduating this coming December with two Bachelor degrees in Computer Science and Mathematics. I am looking forward to work in computer software design field in the future.

I enjoy sports and music. I was in the swimming team all through high school. I also did track for a few years. And on my spare time I like to play tennis. I believe that physical and mental fitness is essential to success. In order to achieve mental fitness, I choose to play musical instruments - not only a way of relaxation but also inspiration. I started playing violin when I was five years old. I also played piano and cello later in my life. I once wanted to be a professional musician but later on I realized that I didn't have the talent for it. I was the first chair of first violin in my high school and had the honor to take part in the National Youth Philharmonic Orchestra, which performed at the opening ceremony of 1996 Olympic Game in Atlanta. After my dream of being a musician, I wanted to become an architect. I was Architecture major the first semester when I went to college. I hoped one day I would become I. M. Pei. I worshiped the Pyramide du Louvre. But my creativity drained and computer games invaded my life at that time. I liked to play video games even before I touched computer. But online computer gaming is a totally different world. Strategy games, first-person-shooting games are my favorite. I was amazed by the graphics, the variety of interactions computer games provides. I started to enjoy the companionship of a computer and like to communicate with it by writing programs.

So I decided to use my little creativity left to become a computer scientist. I hope more people can enjoy the entertainment computer has brought us. And I set my short-term goal to become a successful computer game programmer.

When I was a child, I have always thought the comet was the shiniest star in the galaxy. Its appearance may be short and abrupt, but what else can compare to its moment of glory? Life is short, every minute counts. Youth is as priceless as the precious seconds, you have to make a wish when a comet flies across the night sky. That's why I am here in this pageant, to capture new and exciting experiences that will benefit me throughout my life.

When I grew older, I started to appreciate the candle that runs its tear dry, quietly consumes itself and brightens our lives. There is beauty in simplicity. There is elegance in understatement. There is honor in sacrifice. A candle may never have the flash of a comet, but its inner self gives it the lasting appeal. As time passes, an angelic appearance will fade into the trail of the comet, but an adorable heart will last like the flicker of a candle. Hence, I will always try to cheer up those around me, brighten their life even if just a little bit by doing my best, because I know in the end, that is what makes a person truly beautiful.

My name is Ming Zhao. I'm a college student majoring in fashion design at Fashion Institute of Technology. I enjoy designing, drawing, modeling, singing, dancing, swimming, and anything that makes me feel energetic after a long day. I am always open to try different things. I can enjoy a Broadway show as much as a hit movie. I appreciate a homemade picnic in the park as much as fine dining in a top class restaurant. The world is mysterious, and I have always looked for new ways to fulfill my curiosity.

It has always been my dream to eventually become a top tier fashion designer and an actress. In 1999, I was honored to represent NYS to compete in the Nationwide Sewing/Design in Missouri, ended up winning the competition. At the Young Designer Award 2000, it was a lot of fun to be the designer, garment constructor and as well as a model of my own design, and I was the champion again. Though I competed in many contests, and had won, but these were very small baby steps toward a far greater challenge. To me, it has never been just about the destination of a journey, the journey itself can be every bit as memorable if you learn to make the most out of it.

And when it comes to memorable moments, when I was standing on stage with the rest 15 gorgeous finalists, when I saw the level of appreciation the audience had for me, it was definitely a moment to remember. I would like to take this opportunity to bring up our colleagues, who worked so hard behind the curtains. They deserve these claps and cheers as much as any contestant. And if you have read this far, I would also like to take this opportunity to thank you for your support, you are the ones who made this pageant such great fun to be a part of!

I graduated high school third place in the class and started New York University.

New York introduced a whole new world to me, also started my short-lived modeling career, for modeling for Asians is low in demand. I studied Economics, Drama and cinema studies during college. This intrigued my interest and ambition in the entertainment industry. During school, I leaned acting and art of film critiquing. This helped me to understand the art of drama and cinema better. I joined honor scholars in college, continuing community service in soup kitchen and March of Dimes. At the same time, I interned in Rena Lange to learn the working of the fashion market. I want to help the countries of the world understand each other better and learn how to accept each other so that we will be avoid any future acts of terrorism. During my spare time, I enjoy going to museums to view paintings, especially those of Asian descent and reading books. Playing piano is not only my most outstanding talent but it is also one of the things I enjoy doing the most. I started playing piano at the age of 12 and now have achieved the fifth level of competency. To keep my body in shape, I spend time at the local YMCA swimming.

This summer besides being a part of the pageant, I also work at Mega Academy as one of their teacher assistants because I love working with children. I especially love to see them master a certain skill or finish a complicated problem. My job basically entails grading homework and tutoring the children in both math and English. I have experience with working with children from ages twelve to sixteen. Helping people is another area I have vast experience in. During my sophomore through senior year of high school, I was a vital part of Chinese Immigrants Services, Inc. I acted as Mrs. Susan Wu Rathbone's (Auntie Wu) personal secretary in many cases, writing letters on her behalf to many politicians asking for funding. I also helped her organize many of her fundraisers. My job also included translating for elderly people. I was also the Youth Group Leader for her organization. I took my youth group to nursing homes and soup kitchens to help out especially during the holidays. For all my services at the Chinese Immigrants Services, Inc., I received the Outstanding Service Award from Mayor Giuliani. Now being one of the contestants in the pageant, I have gained the most amazing and liberating experiences in which nothing else can come close in comparison. I will never forget the last few months for the rest of my life.
